March 11, 2002 LB 384

would concur with, and would urge you to vote green on. I also understand it's the last amendment to the day and for that I am thankful. While we're telling stories about what Warren Buffett said, I'll tell this one perhaps at the expense of Senator Chambers. Warren Buffett said that there's a story of a brother and a sister whose father had died. And the brother was of more substantial means and so he said, Sister, you just take care of the arrangements and I'll pay the bill. And so it came, he paid for the funeral, he paid for the last expenses and a month later he got a bill for $10. He thought that was odd so he paid for it. Two months later he got another bill for $10. He thought that was odd but he paid for it. The third month comes by, he gets another bill for $10 so he calls his sister up and says, hey, I thought you were supposed to take care of all the arrangements. She said, I did. We buried Dad in a rented suit. And the reason why I bring that up is I hope this is the last rental payment that we have to pay right now on General File. If there are other additions, we'll package them all up and then put them all in just one payment that we will pay on Select File. But I would urge you to vote for this floor amendment. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Quandahl. Senator Chambers, there are no further lights on. Do you wish to close? Senator Chambers waives close on FA900. The question before the body is, should FA900 be adopted? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on FA900 to the committee amendments. Have you all voted who wish to? Record, please, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 37 ayes, 0 nays on the adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The amendment was adopted. Mr. Clerk, next.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, I have nothing further pending to the committee amendments.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Back on discussion of the committee amendments to FA384 (sic--LB 384). There are no lights on. Senator Redfield, are you...Senator Redfield waives off her ability to close on committee amendments. The question before
